ANDREW KASNETZ	§

MOTION TO WITHDRAW

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

COMES NOW, James S. Bell, PC, James S. Bell, and Connor Nash (hereinafter “Movants”), and files this Motion to Withdraw (the “Motion”) requesting permission of this Honorable Court to withdraw as attorneys of record in the above styled and numbered cause. In support of said Motion, undersigned counsel would show unto this Honorable Court as follows:

Movants respectfully request this Honorable Court enter an order discharging Movants as the attorney of record for Andrew Kasnetz (“Defendant”) and to further order that Movants have no future responsibilities or obligations to or on behalf of Defendant in this case.

The Motion is based on good cause as defined in Rule 1.15 of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct. Further, withdrawing from representation can be accomplished without material adverse effect on the interest of Defendant because Defendant is currently represented by other Counsel on this matter.

Movants requested relief to withdraw is not sought for or to delay. The undersigned has conferred with the prosecution and he is unopposed to the relief sought. Defendant is opposed with the relief sought and has been notified of this filing.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Movants respectfully request this Honorable Court enter an order discharging Movants as the attorney of record for Andrew Kasnetz and to further order that Movants have no future responsibilities or obligations to or on behalf of Defendant in this case. Movants further respectfully request that any and all other necessary and appropriate relief be granted to affect this Motion.

Respectfully Submitted,
